

Time-shifting has always been legal. This is simply about them controlling what and when we watch something. It is IMPERATIVE that you not allow them to prevent recording of shows. It will impede the adoption of HDTV (I will NOT subscribe to it if I can't record it) Lately there has been a huge attack on consumer rights - please do not further erode them.